How do we obtain God's Spirit? Right after the Apostle Peter preached a powerful sermon, he told the listeners, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission [forgiveness] of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:38).

God's Spirit then imparts the nature of God, which develops in us gradually, like fruit ripening on a tree.

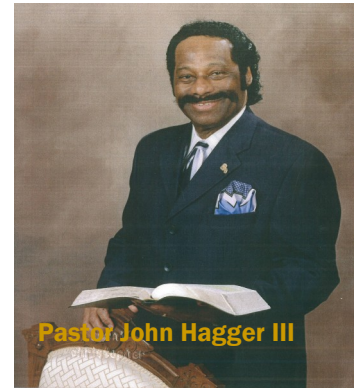

The "fruit" that God's Spirit produces is composed of many wonderful virtues. The Apostle Paul listed some of the main ones. The New King James Version of the Bible presents his words this way: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Galatians 5:22-23).

God's Spirit is the only power great enough to help us overcome the evil "works of the flesh"—our selfish human nature (Galatians 5:19-21). The results of this selfishness are gross examples of unfaithfulness, including adultery (infidelity to one's spouse), fornication (infidelity to one's future spouse), idolatry and sorcery (infidelity and treason against God), and murders (total betrayal of another). May God help us to be different!

Let's look now at some important lessons on faithfulness from scripture. These show how God judges our character.

"Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much" (Luke 16:10, NIV). God never overlooks or excuses any irresponsibility. We must prove our trustworthiness in even the smallest duties. "So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches?" (Verse 11, NIV). God judges our character by how we manage everything! "And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own?" (Verse 12, NIV). We should be just as careful—or even more careful—with the property of others as with our own. That kind of trustworthy stewardship brings certain rewards in this life and will bring much greater rewards in the next life.

It is every Christian's duty to be trustworthy, faithful and Hallelujah! 'Victory Is Mine In 2009'. If I can say anything about the Lord, God Almighty that I serve, it would be 'God Is Faithfull' He is not an Abba Father who throws in the towel on Himself, nor does He throw in the towel on you. He is a God who believes in Perseverance. Even if you must keep going around the same mountain, that too is a form of perseverance.

Church, this message about believers being persistent, pressing-in and persevering through Hurricane Ike, difficult times, high unemployment, stressed out families, government cutbacks and so much more is so timely and needful at this hour for Victory to Victory. Our faithful Father has kept us through it all. I cannot tell you the number of times God has personally encouraged my heart and said, "Daughter, just cast your care upon me for I care for you. I love you. It is my good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Fret not. I am your Shepherd and you, Pastor, Victory to Victory Church shall not want for anything." The Lord has been persistent to reiterate these reassuring words to my heart almost on a daily basis. Oh, by the way, the devil has his words too, but I choose to listen to the voice of God.

By listening to the voice of my Abba Father, I choose to keep my environment free and clear of clutter, fear, anxiety, worry, depression, oppression, drama and any other spirit that is not of God. God is a God of love, joy, peace and happiness. This is the type of atmosphere and virtues that will enable you to persevere through the storms of life.

THE REQUIREMENTS FOR STEWARDS

diligent stewards of God's heritage.

If we are faithful in the little things, we will be given greater and more honourable responsibilities. If we are slothful in our stewardship of God's heritage, the neglected gift will be given to one who has proven himself diligent. Moses, David, Hananiah, Shelemiah, Zadok, Pedaiah, Hanan, Daniel, Timotheus, Tychicus, Epaphras, Onesimus, Paul, Silvanus are all examples of faithful, diligent and trustworthy stewards. Some of which we no nothing more than the fact that they were faithful, a testimony which the Holy Spirit deemed important enough to record. Our time here is to prove our faithfulness since as the Lord said, through Luke who wrote, if we can't be faithful with the unrighteous mammon (earthly possessions), how can we be faithful with the true (heavenly) riches (the anointing).

Diligence, trustworthiness and faithful stewardship lead directly to honour, riches and positions of authority, whilst slothfulness and faithlessness lead directly to poverty and servitude.

What is God's Will and God's Work? It includes giving food to the hungry, drink to the thirsty, hospitality and clothing to those who need them, and care for those who are sick or in prison (Matthew 25:31-46).

The returning Christ is portrayed as the King who will say, "Inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to Me" (verse 40). We show our love for God and Christ by how we love God's other children (1 John 4:20-21). Let's do it!

Also in Matthew 25, in verses 14-30, Jesus told the parable of the talents (a "talent" was a measure of money). This story illustrates several vital lessons.

God gives each of us different abilities and opportunities, and He expects us to thoroughly use them in His service. He will generously reward us according to how much we have spiritually grown and served in this life. An "unprofitable servant" who has wasted his time and opportunities instead of obeying God is called "wicked and lazy" and will be punished. And God does not accept excuses—not even fear of failure.

But the main point of the parable is how it beautifully portrays Christ returning someday to reward His faithful followers—those who believe God and live accordingly.

To each of the profitable servants, the master said, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord" (Matthew 25:21, 23).

May we all live according to the faith God's Spirit develops within us—thereby exhibiting the faithfulness He desires. And in the end, may each of us hear Christ's wonderful approval on the great day He returns to reward His faithful servants!

PERSEVERE By Evelyn J. Hagger

Later this month, I will be attending and teaching at a conference entitled "It's My Time". My particular topic will be "Renewing the Mind". You cannot persevere in anything for God if you do not get a persevering mindset. Any small thing will knock you out of the boat if your mind has not been renewed in the word of God. Paul said, "And be not conformed to this world's system. You see, Paul knew and Pastor and Teacher know that you can become so conformed to peers, relatives, sista girl, Ray Ray 'em and the things and people around you that you have allowed your mind to get locked down and shut in and not able to be transformed. The way you get to next dimension living is to go to next dimension thinking.

Paul said, "And be not conformed to this world's system, but you have to be transformed by the renewing of your mind so that you can prove what is that good, acceptable, and perfect will of God for your life."

Teacher, 'How do I get my mind renewed?' By sitting under the word of God and reading articles like this written under the anointing of God. It can happen in other ways, but I know your mind can be renewed by the two I just named.

There are men and women rising up in this church doing things they have never done before in their lives. Why? Because this is our time, our day; and our season, but as I said in the last article, we are going to have to continue to press in, lean in and persevere to get all, not part of, but all that God has laid up for us. It is still CRUNCH TIME! Do not let up in coming to hear the word of God. Do not let up in your prayer life. Walk in love no matter what bay bay and all his imps try to do to you. Do not let up in your bible study time. Do not let up in your meditation time. Do not let up in the time that you spend in the presence of God. Do not let up! Do not let up! Do not let up! PERSEVERE! VICTORY IS OURS IN 2009!

Do you remember the story in II Kings 13:14-19? The following is a brief summary of it: Elisha had fallen sick and he did later die from his sickness. But before he died, the King of Israel, Joash had come to him and wept. Elisha told him to take bow and arrows and instructed him to place his hands on the bow and he did. Elisha placed his hands on top of the king's hands. Elisha said to the king, "Open the window to the east. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, "The Lord's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Syria. For you shall smite the Syrians in Aphek till you have destroyed them". Then he said, "Take the arrows". And he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike on the ground". And he struck three times and stopped. And the man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Syria until you had destroyed it. But now you shall strike Syria down only three times." Victory to Victory, I say to you, don't let up! don't quit! And don't cave in! Persevere in whatever God has called you to do. The Victory is Already Won! The Victory Has Already Been Handed Over to Us! We Just Have to Persevere!

Again, I admonish you to walk daily in the love of God, hold on to the promises of God, rehearse the rhema word of God that has been spoken in your life, read the logos word daily, and expect always the faithfulness of God. Whatever He has promised you, He is well able to perform. And again, I say, 'GOD PAYS BIG'. Until the next time, continue to let Abba Father find faithfulness and perseverance in you.
